Student Charter

RMIT provides technical and professional education to help people realise their career and personal aspirations.

We are an international community dedicated to learning. We affirm the value of learning as critical to a democratic society and a healthy and sustainable economy supported by innovation. RMIT is committed to creating an environment that promotes independent thought. Our aim is for our graduates to contribute critically, creatively and responsibly to the community.

Students’ learning is RMIT’s first priority.

RMIT will:

1. provide high quality and relevant programs, services and resources that meet students’ diverse needs;
2. treat students with respect and take seriously the time and financial commitments made by students to undertake study;
3. provide an enjoyable, supportive and challenging environment that empowers students;
4. celebrate and support the diversity of students;
5. reject discrimination and harassment;
6. expect and model academic integrity and honesty;
7. maintain effective systems of communication and provide timely and accurate information about students’ progress and programs and services;
8. provide all relevant information to inform students’ selection of program;
9. reflect on our practice, respond to feedback and continually improve what RMIT delivers to students;
10. address problems and complaints fairly and promptly;
11. support student organisations and include student voices in decision-making.

As a student at RMIT you are expected to:

1. be fully committed to your own learning;
2. work with honesty and integrity;
3. give and receive feedback about your experiences and participate in continuous improvement processes;
4. treat other students and staff with respect;
5. value the diversity of students;
6. reject discrimination and harassment;
7. champion independent thought;
8. respect university facilities and resources;
9. provide up to date and accurate student information when required.
